GIVING

If you already have a CCB account, click on the Give Online button.

We have been truly blessed by the spirit of generosity in our church. The dedication and joy our members have helping others inspires us on a daily basis. We believe that generosity means sacrificing for the sake of God and others. Not only is generosity measured in terms of monetary donations, but also our members' willingness to donate their time and talent. We find that when we give to others so that they may flourish, our hearts bloom as well.
